

Co-op Education Day

A special event for housing
co-ops in the Interior

Saturday, April 8, 2006
440 Yates Rd., Kelowna*

Board basics

9:30 am to 12:30 pm, Kerry Panter, member services director, CHF BC

The board is responsible for managing the business of the co-op. What must a board do to get the job done? This workshop will cover the board's role in:

- meeting the co-op's legal responsibilities
- managing the finances
- keeping the co-op in good repair
- finding and keeping good members
- leading a democratic organization and fostering a healthy community.

New Rules for your co-op

1:30 pm to 4:30 pm. Thom Armstrong, executive director, CHF BC

The provincial Co-op Act changed in 2001. Over 170 housing co-ops in BC have adopted new Rules to comply with it, but many Interior co-ops haven't. Learn how easy it is when you use CHF BC's Model Rules and Occupancy Agreement. You will leave this workshop with a good understanding of what's in the model and why, and a step-by-step procedure you can use to get those Rules finished, once and for all.
